

SofTech Acquires ProductDashboard™

SofTech is pleased to announce that NorthRidge Software has transferred the ownership, development, maintenance and support of the ProductDashboard product to SofTech.

Through ProductDashboard every user's view can be personalized by:

- Presenting desktops based on user-defined queries
- Customizing columns displayed in each desktop
- Displaying only the functions to which the user needs access
- Including reports, lists, desktop views and more in a single page
- Personalizing pages for simple "find, view, print" users
- Using ProductDashboard bookmarks to access other data sources
